

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

This year we are celebrating the 64th year of glorious and successful anniversary of Indian freedom. On this day let's introspect the significance of this freedom and the cost it came with. Uncountable people, full of zest for freedom and without any dread jumped into the flares of freedom struggle.

Educationists also played active roles in propagating the idea of freedom by implementing ground breaking educational ideas at the grass root levels. Sir Syed Ahmed Khan, Sri Aurobindo, Rabindranath Tagore, Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, Dr. S. Radha Krishnan, Satyendranath Bose, Srinivasa Ramanujan, Sarojini Naidu and many other luminaries are a few names in the list. They took solemn pledge to light up the darkness of ignorance by imparting education that matters & revived the education system of India in many ways. Today we feel proud to be a part of this great land & learnings we got here. So let us dedicate this edition to our Great Grand Educationists who led the torch of freedom in their own way and helped our motherland win its freedom!!!

Best Wishes,
Sushil Bahl
