

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Hello Friends,

Think of this situation for a while:

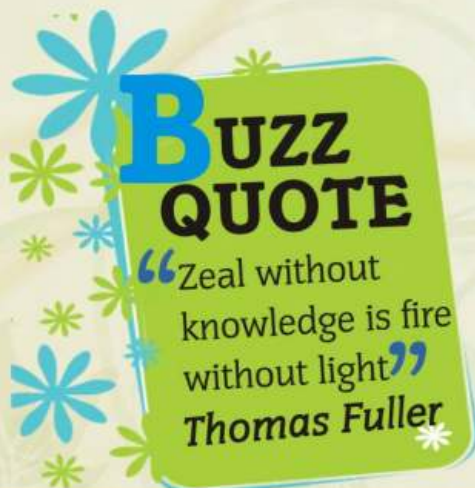

"... You visit your friends place and you find him worrying about the approaching exams. He is so scared of walking into the exam and wondering if he will be able to cover everything in enough time before walking into the examination hall."

Well this is usually the long and short of most students' experience in college during exam time. College life most certainly does not have to be this way! At WLCI, it is an act of putting together your daily learning that eventually lets you prepare for the final test.

This month we are dedicating the Buzz theme to approaching exams. You will find this getting reflected in 'Buzz Joke', 'In the reading List' etc.

So Finalize your notes and Practice well as these two are the key for success!

Best Wishes,
Sushil Bahl
